

COLORADO has declared in favor of Cleveland.

LEXINGTON is now getting coal at 10 cents a bushel.

BISHOP SIMPSON died at Philadelphia on the 18th inst.

BRACKEN County has bought land at $125 an acre, near Chatham, to be used as an infirmary farm.

THE Superior Court has adjourned for the summer vacation and the Court of Appeals will do the same on Saturday.

KENTUCKY will elect state officers in August, Maine follows in September and Ohio, West Virginia and Iowa in October.

THE New York delegation goes to Chicago uninstructed, but the majority of the number are supposed to favor Cleveland.

THE delegates from Louisiana to Chicago are instructed to vote for Tilden whether he refuses the nomination afterward or not.

A COMPANY with a capital stock of $100,000 has been organized at Cynthiana, to engage in cattle breeding in Texas, on a large scale.

THE Michigan State Democratic Convention, held at Detroit, was largely in favor of Cleveland as the candidate for the Presidency.

THE Brooklyn Union, a good Republican paper, thus invites the soldier vote to come forward: "The idea of strengthening a ticket by putting John A. Logan's name on it is comical."

At a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society held at New York, Carl Schurz said in a speech: "Our first duty is to induce the Democrats to put up good men; our second is to help elect them."

A vigorous war against the gambling fraternity is going on at Chicago, and the Mayor has expressed the determination to wipe out the evil at any cost. Three hundred persons were arrested in gambling houses in a single night.

A bill has been introduced into the House of Representatives amending the tobacco laws so that the tax on leaf tobacco of requisite size for wrappers, if not stemmed, shall be seventy-five cents, and if stemmed $1 a pound.

MOSES, the notorious casket-bag Governor of South Carolina, has been operating at Chicago under the names of "Dr. Warren" and "James K. Lawrence." His latest exploit was obtaining money from physicians under false pretenses, for which he was arrested and sent to jail.

THE Southern Exposition.

It is important to the "purchase" section of Kentucky that its wonderful advantages in the possession of soil whose richness is unsurpassed anywhere, whose capacity for accumulating increased population is fully equal to that of the great Northwest, and whose cereal and tobacco products compare with those of any climate, to be represented in the best possible manner at the approaching Southern Exposition. This region of Kentucky offers advantages to the emigrant far more desirable than the bleak Northwest. In the one is found a mild, delightful climate, the richest of soils, active, energetic citizens, and the greatest abundance of cheap land, the cultivation of which will produce larger yield and command as good if not better prices than any other desirable territory; such does that section of Kentucky west and southwest of Louisville possess. In the other, the Northwest, land is poorer, comparatively speaking, the great markets and trading centers are further away, transportation is dearer, and cold, wintry winds and snows and blizzards make the farming season shorter and add greatly to the cost of living by reason of the extra fuel and raiment required.

In Kentucky a man's entire family can assist him in the conduct of his farm; but in the Northwest severe weather drives the frailer members within doors during the most of the year. Such is the superiority of this section, and indeed of all Kentucky, over the Northwest, and certainly no better opportunity will be afforded to demonstrate the truth of what we say than by a good display of the products of the "purchase" and the Green river sections.

Let every man of enterprise within their borders arouse himself to do his utmost in behalf of his own section, and by adding a county display to that of the State, for which an appropriation has been made, show Kentucky to the world in her true colors, in order that she may be reflected as the equal of any, and the superior of nine-tenths of the States in the Union.

So far as mineral advantages are concerned, Eastern Kentucky will display its wonderful coal, iron, and timber; Central Kentucky, the grandest live stock extent, and other sections, we trust, will come forward with the best they have.

BISHOP SIMPSON'S LIFE.
The Career of a Man Well Known to the Religious World.

BISHOP MATTHEW SIMPSON Who died at Philadelphia, June 18, was born at Cadiz, Ohio, June 11, 1811. At 21 he graduated at Allegheny college, Meadville, Pa. A course of medical studies was then pursued for about a year, and in 1833 he started in business as a physician. Soon, however, he abandoned medicine to enter the pulpit, and the same year obtained license to preach in Methodist churches, and since then few preachers have accomplished so much good through their eloquence as a preacher, when it is known that in early youth he was averse to speaking in public, and a knowledge of this fact ought to make conspicuous the value of hard work as one of the chief lessons of his career. His mastery of English speech and his attainments as a scholar were the products of laborious application under the stimulus of an inextinguishable zeal in the cause to which he devoted his life when in 1839, at the age of eighteen years, he was received into the Methodist Church. After his preaching his first pastoral work was in the Pittsburgh conference, where he was soon recognized as a young man of unusual ability and zeal. He was professor of natural science in Allegheny College from 1837 to 1839. President of the Indiana Asbury University from 1839 to 1845, and editor of The Western Christian Advocate from 1845 to 1852, the latter year being the date of his ordination as a Bishop, in Boston. For thirty years he has performed the work of the bishopric with distinguished efficiency, and his life of seventy-three years has been one of the most useful of his time.

THE "RESURRECTED CORPSE."

Elsie Ryland, the Notorious Forger, Again in Trouble.

New York, June 20.—A woman, whom detective call the resurrected corpse, was a prisoner in the police central office last night. Her name is Elsie Ryland. She is a ladylike, twenty-eight years old, and the police say she is one of the smartest criminals they have ever met. She was unknown to them up to last night, when she came to their notice when the detectives felt gratified that they had put a stop to a skillful operations at least for a while. Beginning about April 1881, numerous complaints were made by shopkeepers who said they had been victimized by a sweet-voiced woman, who had procured checks from them for small amounts, and that later they had discovered that the checks were raised, and the increased amounts collected upon them. The woman would call on a shopkeeper after banking hours, apparently in deep distress and say in an agitated tone, "I have a dear friend sick in Albany, and I'm anxious to send her a little money. If you will kindly give me a check for $5, I'll give you the cash."

She obtained a check for $5 from G. S. Duncan, of 1335 Third avenue, in this way, and was much astonished when he learned later that $150 had been drawn upon it.

The detectives, in 1882, raided the house, 13 Varick place, and arrested Edward C. Ryland, his wife Elsie, and Charles Crawford, alias Palmer. Later they captured other pals.

All were sentenced to two and a half years for forgery. Later Elsie was released on bail, pending an appeal. When an adverse decision was rendered, Mrs. Ryland could not be found. Her husband and the police said she had received an uncanny letter, but she was arrested a few days ago in Philadelphia, where she was living with Billy Carter, alias Pretty Bill, a thief. She took her arrest coolly.

CONDENSED NEWS.

FIVE of the six stove foundries of Pittsburgh have resumed work on non-union workmen.

JUDON J. B. FORAKER, Cincinnati, has been elected trustee of Cornell University, New York.

THE Republican National Committee meets in New York June 26, to organize for campaign work.

"I CANNOT your candidate be," says Senator Thurman, of Ohio. "I only ask the world to leave me alone."

At Charleston, West Virginia, John Joimann, who killed Fenton Hall at a dance last October, was found guilty of murder in the first degree.

THE Iron Manufacturers and Amalgamated Manufacturers have agreed to abide by the Pittsburgh scale of prices, and the contract has been signed for another year.

VERMONT Republicans nominated Samuel E. Pingree for Governor by acclamation; E. J. Uruboe for Lieutenant Governor, and W. H. Dubois for Treasurer.

At the Sheldonia Theatre, Oxford, England, the students cheered the Queen, the Marquis of Salisbury and Lord Churchill, and grained loudly at the mention of Gladstone, Bradlaugh and Henry George.

Richard E. Burley and a woman of the town named Alice Riley, known as "The Cyclone," have been arrested for the murder of R. L. Harris, the railroad contractor, who was shot and killed at Wichita, Kansas. Burley was known to have had trouble with Harris about a woman, and is said to have threatened to kill him. The body of Hiram Edmondson, a prominent coal dealer of McKeesport, Pa., who had been missing since December, was found Sunday in the Monongahela River. Gustav Jacobson and John Wagner are arrested, damaging testimony having been given against the latter.

KILLED WITH A CLUB.
Singular and Inexplicable Crime of a Husband.

IONIA, Mich., June 20.—Andrew Long, whose wife was found brutally murdered in bed last Saturday, at their home near Muir, was arrested yesterday and made a full confession. He stated that he got up in the night, and with a club beat her head in. He then cut her hands so that it would appear that she was attacked by burglars. He says he has distinct recollection of all he did, and that it was done as deliberately as I would "go out and get an arm full of wood." He says, also, he had no reason for the crime.

RAILWAY COLLISION.

Three Killed and Many Passengers Seriously Wounded.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 20.—A fatal accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific Railway, thirty miles below Ottawa. The Montreal Express collided at Papenawa with a freight train, killing three persons and seriously wounding many others. A staff of physicians have been dispatched to the scene of the accident.

FIRE.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 20.—Fire last night destroyed the Andes Flour and wooden mill, at Bellevue, Wood County. Loss $60,000. No insurance.

BRADFORD, Pa., June 20.—Fire this morning destroyed the Hart House, Furnish clothing store and a confectionery, on Main street, with most of their contents. Total loss, $30,000.

Was Building a Fire.

PITTSBURGH, June 20.—The explosion of an oil can at South Side set fire to a house, and burned Lizzie Temples, aged ten, so badly that she died in an hour. A man named Frank O'Connell, who extinguished the fire, was terribly burned about the head, face and hands, and may not recover. The little girl was using oil to light a fire in a stove.

Catholic Union Convention.

BALTIMORE, June 20.—The Convention of the Catholic Young Men's National Union assembled at 10 o'clock to-day, with President Mitchell in the chair. Addresses were made by Archbishop Gibbons and Mr. J. Fitzgerald. A letter was read regretting the inability of the Bishop of Savannah.

Perishing Female Loveliness.

BALTIMORE, June 20.—At 1300 the score of the female walkers stood: Howard, 247 miles and 11 laps; Tolson, 224 miles and 11 laps; Douglas, 200 miles; Kilberry, 201 miles; Anderson, 201 miles; Masscott, 164 miles; Wood, 155 miles; Mabel, 101 miles; Morton, 101 miles.

Train Derailed—Two Killed.

TALLADEGA, Ala., June 20.—The construction train on the Anniston & Atlantic Railroad was derailed to-day near Clifton. Charles Ryland and James Netter were killed. Four other men were seriously, if not fatally, injured.

New Advertisements.

TESTED BY TIME.

STRONG'S PECTORAL PILLS!

In successful use for HALF A CENTURY.

The best remedy for Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, and all the ailments of the Throat, Lungs, and Bowels. It is a powerful and delicate medicine, soothing and relaxing the nervous system, and giving vigor and health to every fibre of the body. Sold by all druggists. For particulars, address C. E. HULL & CO., 18 Cedar Street, New York.

AGENTS WANTED everywhere to sell new LAMP BURNER. No more trouble to move wicks, every family wants this lamp. Use same globe. Sells itself. Three barbers for $2 in any city. Better Lamp Burner Co., 75, Murray Street, New York.

Weak Nervous Men

Whose debility, exhausted powers, prostrated energy and failure to perform his duties properly are caused by overwork, and a lack of rest, and a want of proper food, and a want of proper exercise, and a want of proper sleep, and a want of proper company, and a want of proper recreation, and a want of proper education, and a want of proper culture, and a want of proper refinement, and a want of proper distinction, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation, and a want of proper credit, and a want of proper respect, and a want of proper admiration, and a want of proper love, and a want of proper affection, and a want of proper friendship, and a want of proper sympathy, and a want of proper understanding, and a want of proper wisdom, and a want of proper knowledge, and a want of proper skill, and a want of proper power, and a want of proper influence, and a want of proper authority, and a want of proper command, and a want of proper control, and a want of proper dominion, and a want of proper empire, and a want of proper kingdom, and a want of proper glory, and a want of proper honor, and a want of proper praise, and a want of proper fame, and a want of proper reputation

LOST HUSBAND'S RETURN

After Criminally Neglecting His Family 35 Years.

His Wife Twice Married During His Absence, Both Husbands Dying—The Prodigal Does Not Explain.

MUSKEG, Ind., June 26.—A veritable case of Enchiridion has just developed here. In 1851 there went from this city a party of twenty-six men to California, with a view of finding their fortune in the gold mines just discovered. They were all well-to-do citizens, most of whom, after two or three years' fairly successful operations, returned to their homes and families. Among those who went was one Thompson Walling, who left behind a loving wife and two children, a son and daughter. About 1855 he sent them a sum of money, after which time nothing was heard of him. He was supposed to be dead, and upon this supposition his estate was settled, as was also that of his father, who died wealthy some time afterward. To be on the safe side of the law, his wife obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion, and soon after was married to Horatio Wilcox, who was later killed in his saw mill. She was thus again left alone, and not long afterwards was once more married, this time to Jeremiah Veach. Two years ago he was called away by the hand of death, and she found herself mourning her third husband. With what feelings she often reviewed the years of her early life, and thought of him, her first love, he was so mysteriously disappeared from her no one can tell. She hoped, perhaps, that years might bring him home. During all this time Volney Wilson, an old and esteemed friend of the family, would not be satisfied that he was dead. Last November, while confined to her room with rheumatism, as a matter of pastime, she sent a number of letters to California and elsewhere, inquiring about Walling. Fortunately one of these fell into Walling's hands, he being Deputy Postmaster at Weather, Oregon, to which office the letter was sent. It was so peculiarly affected by its contents, and replied. Mrs. Walling continued to correspond with him, and finally promised him to return home. He came yesterday to this city, which he left thirty-five years ago, and was kindly received by his old friends. The forty-nine had been in town but a short time when his son, then a mere babe, now almost forty years of age, drove in town and took him to the home where live the wife of his youth. The meeting was a joyful one, both expressing the greatest delight at seeing each other. He has said that in all his time of absence his love for his wife and children has been strong, and he desires to spend the remainder of his years with them. It is therefore predicted that they will be reunited in marriage, and so end their days as they once began, together.

VICTIM OF THUGS.

Although it Did Seem That He Took All Necessary Precaution.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 30.—Dr. Albert Mayers, of Minneapolis, Minn., left the Astor House in New York yesterday for home. He had $3,500 and publicly divided it before leaving the house, putting $300 in his watch pocket, the remainder on the inside waistcoat pocket, where he placed it in. He took the Cortlandt street ferry for the West River train. He lay two men on the boat and again on the cars who were in the hotel when he exposed his money. Upon reaching Kingston the two men began playing three-card monte. Mayers held aloof from the game, but consented to change money for the gamblers. As he did so, seven or eight men gathered around him and one grabbed his $300. In the scuffle his waistcoat was cut open, and the $300 extracted therefrom. An alarm was raised, but the men left the train at Kingston. Mayers was told that there were no police there, and in his excitement came on here and related his story to the police with tears in his eyes. Chief Wright advised him to go back to New York and let his case before Inspector Byrnes. He left on the 9:50 a. m. train to-day on the Central road for New York. Mayers has a good mind picture of the men.

THE MARKETS.

General.

New York, June 19.—Flour—Unchanged. Wheat—No. 2 red winter July, 1.01. Corn—No. 2 mixed, July, 68 1/2 cts. Rye—Canada, 76 1/2 cts. Barley—Nominal. Pork—Old mess, 11 1/2 cts. Lard—No. 1, Butter—Western creamery, 18 1/2 cts. Cheese—Ohio flats, 1 1/2 cts. Eggs—State choice, 17 1/2 cts. Wheat, 18 cts. Sugar—Refined, 11 cts. Cut loaf, 7 1/2 cts. Coffee—No. 1, ordinary cargo, 9 1/2 cts.

New Orleans, June 19.—Pork—11 1/2 cts. Cut hams—Shoulders, 10 cts. Bacon—Shoulders, 6 1/2 cts. clear rib, 10 cts. Ham—13 1/2 cts. Lard—No. 1, Sugar—Fair, 4 1/2 cts. good fair, 4 1/2 cts. prime, 4 1/2 cts. Molasses—Common, 30 cts. centrifugal, 1 1/2 cts. Whiskey—10 1/2 cts.

Milwaukee, June 19.—Wheat—July, 85 1/2 cts. August, 85 cts. Corn—No. 2, 68 1/2 cts. Rye—64 1/2 cts. Barley—61 cts.

Toledo, June 19.—Wheat—No. 2 red, cash, 84 1/2 cts. June, 84 cts. July, 84 1/2 cts. August, 84 cts. No. 2 soft, 81 cts. No. 1, 82 cts. High mixed, 84 1/2 cts. No. 2, cash or June, 80 1/2 cts. July, 80 cts. August, 80 cts. rejected, 78 cts. no grade, 75 cts.

Cincinnati, June 19.—Cotton—Midling, 11 1/2 cts. Flour—Family, 1 3/4 cts. 70; spring patent, 85 1/2 cts. Wheat—No. 2 winter red on track, 1 1/2 cts. in elevator, 90 cts. 60. Corn—No. 2 mixed, 50 cts. rejected, 48 1/2 cts. Oats—No. 2 mixed, 30 1/2 cts. No. 2 white, 37 1/2 cts. Rye—No. 2, 66 1/2 cts. Mess pork—41 1/2 cts. Lard—Dried kettle, 8 1/2 cts. Bacon—Shoulders, 6 1/2 cts. Sugar-cured hams, 12 1/2 cts. Pickled bellies, 8 1/2 cts.

Chicago, June 19.—Hogs—Fair to good light, 40 1/2 cts. medium packing, 39 1/2 cts. choice heavy, 41 1/2 cts. 70. Cattle—Export, 38 1/2 cts. good to choice shipping, 38 1/2 cts. No. 2, common to medium, 35 1/2 cts. No. 3, inferior to fair, 33 1/2 cts. 38 1/2 cts. No. 4, medium to good, 33 1/2 cts. 40 cts. choice to extra, 34 1/2 cts. 40 cts. No. 1, 35 1/2 cts. No. 2, 34 1/2 cts. No. 3, 33 1/2 cts. No. 4, 32 1/2 cts. Western quoted at 35 1/2 cts. per 100 lbs.

FRANK R. PHISTER.

PHISTER is making a specialty of Picture Framing. The work is warranted first-class and the very lowest rates are charged. He has great stock of large supply of Engravings, Chromos, etc. Old Frames revarnished, regilded, glass put in and general work of the kind done on the shortest notice. Call and inspect the stock.

PHISTER will guarantee these prices on Croquet:
Four ball, in box, $1 00
Six ball, in box, 1 20
Eight ball, in box, 1 50
Eight ball, in box, 3 00
Eight ball, in box, 4 00
Eight ball, in box, 5 00
All first-class only, and worth the money.

PHISTER is selling a very fine line of Ball Goods.
Balls from 5c. to $1 50
Bats from 5c. to 50
Belts from 10c. to 20
Caps, each, 5
Gloves, Masks, etc., furnished if desired.
A large stock of Marbles, etc., at prices that will surprise you.

PHISTER has a little Paper Boom that sells for one cent each. It is a three-cornered piece of paper and is so arranged that by using suddenly a few words motion it cracks like a pistol. It is perfectly harmless and can be used repeatedly. One gross were sold within three hours after opening them. Every child will have one by 12 o'clock to-morrow.

BOOKS AND STATIONERY.

KELLEY & MOORE'S

Celebrated GRECIAN ARCH

SHOES AND SLIPPERS.

A Full assortment of these well-known Goods for Ladies, Misses and Children, at

C. S. MINER & BRO.'S

RELIABLE SHOE HOUSE, MAYSVILLE, KY.

WALTER BLATTERMAN,
—Designer and Importer of—

ITALIAN MARBLE,
Scotch and American
GRANITE MONUMENTS

Office: Hill House.
Estimates given on work and designs furnished or gotten up free of charge. I have employed Mr. J. A. McCLARY, who has had long experience in the Monumental business, myself. WALTER BLATTERMAN.

AT RANSON'S

—YOU CAN BUY—
Women's Opera Slippers for $1 00
" Button Slippers for 1 00
" Newport Ties for 1 00
Misses' Opera Slippers for 90
" Newport Ties for 50
Women's Kid Button Boots for 1 25
Misses' Kid Button Boots for 1 25
" Pebble Button Boots for 1 25
Boys' London Toe Button for 1 50
Boys' Low Button for 1 50
" Jim's Button Congress for 2 25
And the Best and Nicest $2 50 Kid Button in the city.

AT RANSON'S

THOMAS JACKSON,
—Dealer in—
BUGGIES, CARRIAGES,

Spring Wagons and Harness,
Repairs No. 18 South street, Maysville, Ky. Headquarters for DR. JACKSON'S liniment and reliable Horse Medicines.

DR. JACKSON'S BLACK OIL cures mange, cracked heel, warts, gray leg, prickled foot, butter, and cracks, etc. Price 50 cents.
DR. JACKSON'S BLISTERING OINTMENT is an excellent remedy for enlargements, sprain, ring-bone, capped hock, curb, splint, canker or strain of the white bone. Price 50 cents.
DR. JACKSON'S WHITE OIL cures lung fever, inflammation of the kidneys and rheumatism in man or horse. Price 50 cents.
DR. JACKSON'S ROOT OIL is an effective remedy for chafes, sores or quarter-crack in horses' feet and mange and lice in cattle and horses. Price 50 cents.
Sent to any address on receipt of price actually.

T. Lowry,

—Dealer in—
FAMILY GROCERIES,

Teas, Queensware, Cigars, Glassware, Tobaccos, Notions.

Highest cash price paid for country produce
111 1/2
Corner Fourth and Plum streets.

PIANO MANUFACTORY.

F. L. TRAYLER,
Manufacturer and Dealer in first-class
PIANOS & ORGANS.

ALL INSTRUMENTS WARRANTED!
PIANOS TUNED AND REPAIRED
Front Street, Maysville.

30 DAYS TRIAL
DR. DYES
VOLTAIC BELT
BEFORE AND AFTER
Electric Appliances are sent on 30 Day Trial, TO MEN ONLY, YOUNG OR OLD, WHO are suffering from NERVOUS DEBILITY, Lost Vitality, Lack of Nerve Power and Weak, Wasting Weakness, and all those diseases of a PLEURAL NATURE, resulting from ANEMIA and BLOOD LOSS. Send your name and complete name to CHAS. H. MINER and MARY ANN FRAZER, The Sole Distributors of the Voltaic Belt, and a volume for Illustrated Pamphlet free. Address VOLTAIC BELT CO., MARSHALL, MICH.

SEWING MACHINES
Needles, Oils
Attachments
A. A. Sorries & Son's,
—77 Second St.—
MAYSVILLE, KY.
Repairing promptly done by
H. M. WILLIAMS.

Mothers,
Don't Punish
Your Children!
MINN ANNA FRAZER,
Second Street,
NOVELTY STORE!
—Staple and Fancy—
DRY GOODS
And Notions.

I have just received a splendid lot of the latest styles and patterns of Wall Paper.
Also a full line of Window Shades, which will be sold at very low prices.
SUPERIOR
ICE CREAM,
made from the best ingredients, supplied to weddings, parties, etc., on the most reasonable terms. Fruit of all kinds and Pure Home-made Candles fresh every day.
D. M. MITCHELL,
Second street, Mrs. Thomas' old stand.

OPUM MORPHINE HABIT
DR. H. B. RAY, of the Dispensary cures, how often a steady whorl any one case cured almost quickly and painlessly. For information call on or write to
H. B. RAY, A. B. M., 109 Fulton St., New York City.

J. BALLENGER,
No. 33, Second Street,
(Next door to the First National Bank), Maysville, Ky.

Rockford, Waltham, and Swiss
WATCHES
Hamden, Springfield, and Elgin.
Anything in the Jewelry Line.

MY GOODS ARE ALL NEW AND OF THE LATEST STYLES.

DIAMONDS, SILVERWARE AND CLOCKS

C. S. MINER & BRO.,

—ESTABLISHED 1839—DEALERS IN—
BOOTS, Leather and Findings
SHOES, MAYSVILLE, KY.

A. R. Glascock & Co.,

Are Offering Inducements on the Following Goods
COTTON AND STAPLE GOODS

Of all kinds. An examination of prices will convince you.

—OUR 25 CENT—
DRESS GOODS, LINEN LAWNS

Are superior to all others in the market
—AT—
15 CENTS.

WHITE GOODS
—AND—EMBROIDERIES

The largest and most complete stock ever in the city.
WE ARE RECEIVING
NEW GOODS

Every day, which we will sell at bottom prices, which we are selling at unprecedented prices.

City and country Merchants will do well by examining our large and varied stock of Dry Goods and Notions,

Special Inducements!

—For the next twenty days we will offer—
15 CENTS!

of all kinds, Randall Harrows, Buckeye Force Pump, (the best in the world at special prices, in order to make room for other goods. We have just received a car load of the celebrated Mitchell Waterbury & Co. Harrows, which we are offering at very low prices. Barbed wire, for fencing, a full supply always on hand. Headquarters for the well-known Walter A. Wood's

Iron Frame Binders and Harvesters, with Bundle Carrier attachment. Don't fail to see this machine when in Maysville. Wood's Enclosed Gear Mowers and Self Rake Reapers. Corn Planters, Corn Drills, Cultivators, &c. A full line of repairs for Champion Moulds. Farmers are cordially invited to make our office their headquarters when in Maysville.

McILVAIN & HUMPHREYS,
(Successors to MYALL & RILEY.)
No. 7, West Second Street, Maysville.

JACOB LINN,
BAKER AND CONFECTIONER.
ICE CREAM a specialty. Fresh bread baked daily. Parties and weddings furnished on short notice.
32 Second st., Maysville MAYSVILLE, KY.

HERMANN LANGE
WATCHES
JEWELRY
All Goods and Work WARRANTED.
ALL GOODS ENGRAVED FREE.